Description of the events:-

Mismatch/Cap/Goggle Day

On 27th January 2023, most of the students from every class dressed up in a mismatched way and wore caps and goggles. Students were required to wear "mixed up" and "unmatched" clothes to college. The motto was 'the tackier the better'. Students were urged to come out of their comfort zones and come up with new and creative ideas using their imagination and wear clothes to reflect their mismatched personalities. The aim was to enable the students to understand the concept of proper dressing and according to the occasion. Students posed happily in their mismatched attire.

Respective Class incharge from each class short listed students from their respective class and sent them for the final round in Girl's common room. There were 21 finalists for the final round. Asst. Prof. Aasha Dhurgude has done judging of the final round by asking students some questions about their costumes and purpose of wearing them. Later students have done an introduction round and answered the questions asked by the judge. Then at last the results have been declared by the judge. Students were happy with the results and accepted the feedback given by the judge.

Winners of the Event :- 1) 1st Winner From Boys:- Anil Jha from FYBAF

2) 1st Winner From Girls:- Komal Gule From FYCS

Traditional day:

On 28th January 2023, Traditional Day was celebrated to promote "Unity in diversity" which is based on the concept of individual or social differences that enrich the society and the nation as a whole. Traditional Day was held at the college auditorium, it was observed as a celebration of India's diverse culture. It's a day marked for students as well as professors to come in traditional attire with the allotted states of their respective departments.

Traditional food competition was conducted as per respective groups like Maharashtrian, Rajasthani, Gujarati, Punjabi, South Indian, Goan, and so on. Students presented a variety of dishes from respective states. Their inner creativity and potential were driven through these traditional food competitions. Asst.Prof. Veena Sawant and Asst Prof.Asha Durgude judged by tasting the traditional dishes and asking about the ingredients and the recipe of that particular dish. Students enthusiastically answered the questions asked by both judges.
