Descriptive Report :-

On October 2, 2019, Sainath Education Trust, in association with Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, Vashi, organized a serene and spiritually uplifting Bhajan Sandhya (devotional music evening) at the iconic Gateway of India in Mumbai. The event aimed to commemorate the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, a renowned advocate for peace and unity, through devotional music and reflection.

Asst .Prof . Kamal Jain addressed the volunteers.Around 97 NSS Volunteers had participated in the event.Asst.prof.Kamal Jain And Asst.Prof. Arun Vishwakarma were the essential part of this Event.

The Bhajan Sandhya at the Gateway of India was a unique and meaningful way to pay tribute to Mahatma Gandhi's values and principles while fostering a sense of community and spirituality.

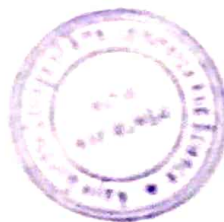

The evening commenced with the melodious recitation of devotional bhajans (songs) that invoked feelings of peace, unity, and harmony. The bhajans were performed by volunteers and local artists, creating a serene ambiance. In memory of Mahatma Gandhi's philosophy of non-violence and truth, a candlelight vigil was held. Participants lit candles and offered silent prayers for world peace and unity.

A session of reflection and meditation was conducted, emphasizing the importance of inner peace and self-awareness in today's fast-paced world. In keeping with the traditional practice of sharing blessings, prasad (sacred food) was distributed to the attendees, symbolizing the spirit of sharing and togetherness.

Outcome -

The Bhajan Sandhya at the Gateway of India organized by Sainath Education Trust and Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, Vashi, on October 2, 2019, was a heartfelt tribute to Mahatma Gandhi's enduring principles. With the participation of 97 NSS volunteers and 120 beneficiaries, the event provided a moment of spiritual reflection and unity in a historic setting. It encouraged individuals to connect with their inner selves and promote peace and harmony in their lives and communities.
