Report on Helmet Painting Activity during Road Safety Week

Date: 10th February 2020

Time: 9:00 AM to 10:00 AM

Venue: Auditorium

Organized by: NSS Unit

Activity Description:

As a part of Road Safety Week, the NSS Unit of Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science in Vashi, Navi Mumbai, organized a Helmet Painting Activity in the college auditorium on 10th February 2020. This creative initiative aimed to raise awareness about road safety and promote the use of helmets among students.

Participants:

A total of 25 enthusiastic student volunteers actively participated in the Helmet Painting Activity. Each volunteer was provided with a plain helmet to decorate.

Event Execution:

The event commenced promptly at 9:00 AM, with Mr. Kamal Jain, the Programme Officer of the NSS Unit, providing an opening address. He emphasized the significance of road safety and how wearing helmets is a critical aspect of safeguarding lives on the road. Mr. Jain encouraged students to not only paint the helmets creatively but also to reflect on the importance of road safety in their lives and communities.

With paintbrushes, colors, and their artistic flair, the students set to work on their helmets. The auditorium was filled with a buzz of creativity as students expressed themselves through their helmet designs. Mr. Jain guided and motivated the participants throughout the event, offering valuable insights and assistance.

Outcome and Achievements:

The Helmet Painting Activity was a grand success, aligning perfectly with the objectives of Road Safety Week. By the end of the hour, all 25 helmets had been transformed into unique pieces of art. These painted helmets served as a dual-purpose reminder: they not only symbolized individual expression but also represented a commitment to road safety.

This initiative not only instilled the importance of wearing helmets but also fostered a sense of responsibility among the students towards creating safer roads in their communities.

Outcome:

The Helmet Painting Activity conducted during Road Safety Week by the NSS Unit of Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science was a highly effective and engaging way to promote road safety awareness among students. Mr. Kamal Jain's leadership and the active participation of students contributed significantly to the event's success.

This event reflects the NSS Unit's dedication to community engagement and its commitment to making a positive impact on society. It is hoped that such initiatives will continue to inspire and educate students on crucial issues like road safety.
