Overall Analysis: -

We asked students to give observations and suggestions through an online survey. We still need to improve the level of quality of the institution. Some healthy suggestions and observations have been made by the students like filter drinking water, more computers in the lab and space for lunch, clean toilets and washrooms, cleanliness in the classrooms, more books in the library, to conduct more practical based activities and so on. We will consider these suggestions and an attempt will be made to implement these suggestions and observations very soon.

Conclusion:

After analyzing all the questionnaires of various stream students, the majority of students have given their opinion towards the positive side without any hesitation. We are happy that the student's opinion reflects that we are marching towards giving a qualitative education mechanism system for them.
