Descriptive Report :-

Introduction:

On the beautiful morning of 24th December 2023, the NSS (National Service Scheme) unit of Sainath Education Trust organized a college campus cleaning activity at Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science in Vashi, Navi Mumbai. The event aimed to promote cleanliness and a sense of responsibility among students and faculty members.

Participants:

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from both students and faculty members. The NSS Program Officers, Assistant Prof. Arun Vishwakarma and Assistant Prof. Raju Rathod, actively coordinated the activity. Approximately 100 students and 20 faculty members took part in this initiative.

Activities Undertaken:

The college campus cleaning activity commenced at 10:00 a.m. Participants were divided into groups and assigned specific areas within the campus for cleaning. The activities included:

1. Litter Pickup: Volunteers collected and disposed of litter and trash from the college grounds, including classrooms, corridors, and the outdoor areas.
2. Gardening and Landscaping: Some teams focused on gardening and landscaping tasks, which involved weeding, planting, and maintaining the college's greenery.
3. Cleaning of Common Areas: Common areas such as the canteen, library, and sports facilities were thoroughly cleaned and organized.

4. Waste Segregation: The NSS volunteers educated the participants on proper waste segregation and recycling techniques.

Achievements and Impact:

The college campus cleaning activity proved to be a resounding success. Several positive outcomes were achieved, including:

- A significant improvement in the cleanliness and hygiene of the college campus.
- Increased awareness among students and faculty about the importance of cleanliness and responsible waste disposal.
- Fostering a sense of community and teamwork among participants.
- Enhancement of the overall aesthetics of the college premises.

Outcome:

The college campus cleaning activity organized by the NSS unit of Sainath Education Trust's Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, Vashi, Navi Mumbai, was a commendable initiative that not only contributed to the cleanliness of the campus but also instilled a sense of responsibility and environmental awareness among the participants. Such activities play a crucial role in shaping responsible citizens and maintaining a clean and conducive learning environment.
