Details of Activity:

Introduction:

From September 18, 2022, to September 24, 2022, a team of 25 dedicated NSS students from Sainath Education Trust's Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts Commerce and Science in Vashi, Navi Mumbai, actively participated in the Polio Eradication Drive initiated by the Indian government. Their selfless service from 7:00 AM to 5:00 PM at key public places such as the Vashi Bus Stand, Vashi Railway Station, and Vashi Market played a crucial role in advancing the cause of polio eradication.

Activities and Impact:

The NSS students engaged in several vital activities during the campaign:

Vaccination Support: They assisted healthcare professionals in administering polio vaccinations to children and infants. Their compassionate approach put parents and guardians at ease, encouraging higher vaccination rates.

Public Awareness: The students actively engaged with the public, educating them on the importance of polio immunization. They distributed informative pamphlets and answered queries, helping dispel myths about vaccines.

Achievements:

- A total of 500 children received polio vaccinations during the campaign.
- Community awareness regarding polio vaccination significantly increased, with parents expressing willingness to vaccinate their children.
- The campaign ran smoothly and safely, thanks to the diligent efforts of NSS students.
- Their exemplary commitment to community service exemplified the institution's dedication to fostering responsible citizens.

Outcome:

The NSS students of Sainath Education Trust's Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts Commerce and Science displayed commendable dedication and altruism during their participation in the Indian government's Polio Drive. Their tireless efforts not only facilitated the vaccination of children but also played a pivotal role in educating the community about the importance of immunization.

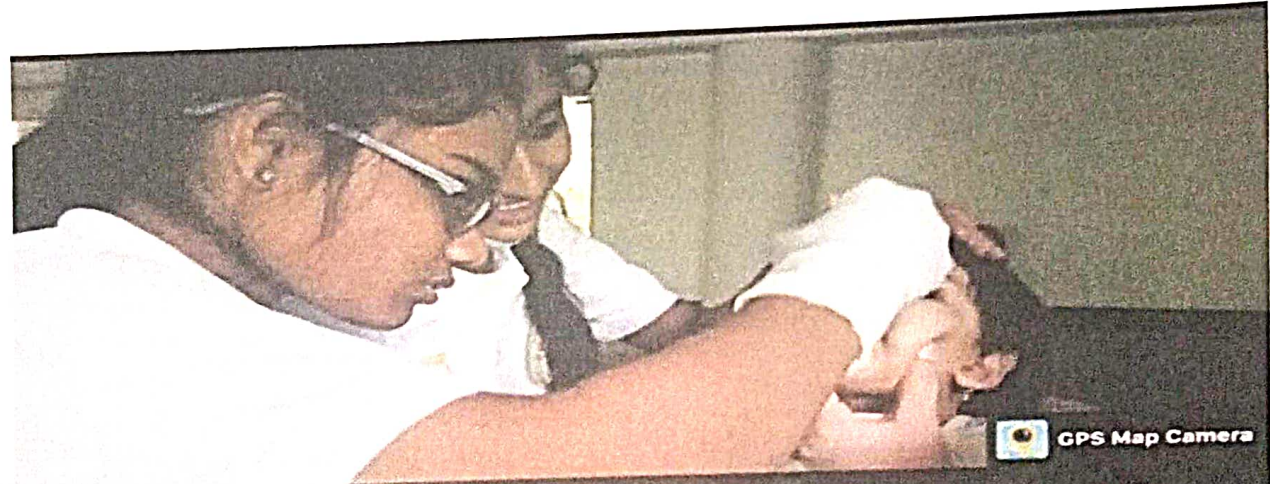

Their contribution embodies the spirit of responsible citizenship and community engagement. We extend our gratitude to these young volunteers for their invaluable service in advancing the cause of polio eradication. Their involvement underscores the institution's commitment to creating socially conscious individuals.

In a week of relentless service, these NSS students have made a significant impact on public health in Vashi, Navi Mumbai, and have taken a meaningful step towards a polio-free India.
