Venue: Talaw Pali Ground, Thane, Mumbai

Time: 3:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Participants: 6 NSS Volunteers from Sainath Education Trust, Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, Vashi, Navi Mumbai

Introduction:

On 30 November 2022, the Sainath Education Trust, associated with Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science in Vashi, Navi Mumbai, took the initiative to promote AIDS awareness and educate the community about this critical health issue. To contribute to this noble cause, 6 dedicated NSS Volunteers were sent to participate in a Poster Making Competition organized by the Red Ribbon Club, NMMC, which took place at Talaw Pali Ground in Thane, Mumbai.

Event Highlights:

The event was scheduled from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM and was specifically designed to encourage artistic expression and creativity while spreading awareness about AIDS. The following are key points highlighting the event:

Participation and Enthusiasm:

The 6 NSS Volunteers from Sainath Education Trust demonstrated immense enthusiasm and creativity throughout the competition. They actively engaged with the theme of AIDS awareness and put their artistic skills to use.

Theme and Message:

The theme of the competition was centered around AIDS awareness, focusing on prevention, care, and support for those affected by HIV/AIDS. The participants' posters conveyed powerful messages and information about the disease.

Judging and Prizes:

A panel of judges, comprising experts in both art and AIDS awareness, evaluated the posters. Winners were awarded based on their creativity, relevance to the theme, and the effectiveness of the message. Prizes were awarded to the top participants as a recognition of their efforts.

Awareness and Education:

The competition not only encouraged artistic expression but also served as an educational platform. It raised awareness about the importance of safe practices, HIV testing, and supporting individuals living with HIV/AIDS.

Outcome:

The participation of 6 NSS Volunteers from Sainath Education Trust, Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, Vashi, Navi Mumbai, in the Red Ribbon Club's Poster Making Competition for AIDS Awareness at Talav Pali Ground in Thane, Mumbai, was a commendable effort to contribute to a vital cause. Their dedication, creativity, and active involvement in the competition demonstrated their commitment to spreading awareness about AIDS and supporting those affected by HIV/AIDS.

Such initiatives play a pivotal role in fostering community engagement and social responsibility among the youth. The event was a success due to the volunteers' efforts and the collaboration between Sainath Education Trust and the Red Ribbon Club, NMMC.

Report on Bhajan Sandhya on Gandhi Jayanti

Date: October 2, 2022

Location: Gateway of India, Mumbai

Time: 5:30 PM

Introduction:

On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, a group of 8 dedicated NSS volunteers from Sainath Education Trust Rajiv Gandhi College in Vashi, Navi Mumbai, participated in a Bhajan Sandhya event held at the iconic Gateway of India in Mumbai. This event aimed to pay homage to Mahatma Gandhi and promote peace and unity through devotional music.

Event Details:

The Bhajan Sandhya commenced at 5:30 PM and took place against the backdrop of the magnificent Gateway of India. The event was organized to honor the legacy of Mahatma Gandhi and spread his message of non-violence and communal harmony. The Bhajan Sandhya featured a variety of devotional songs and bhajans, creating a serene and spiritual atmosphere at this historic location.

Participation and Contributions:

The NSS volunteers actively participated in the event, showcasing their commitment to community service and promoting the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi. They played a crucial role in various aspects of the event:

1. Crowd Management: A few volunteers helped in managing the crowd and ensuring that the event proceeded smoothly without any disruptions.

2. Promoting Gandhi's Ideals: All volunteers actively engaged with the audience, distributing pamphlets and sharing information about Mahatma Gandhi's life, teachings, and his vision for a peaceful and united India

Outcome:

The Bhajan Sandhya event on Gandhi Jayanti at the Gateway of India was a great success, thanks to the active participation and contributions of the 8 NSS volunteers from Sainath Education Trust Rajiv Gandhi College. Their dedication to promoting Gandhian values and their commitment to community service were commendable. This event not only paid tribute to the Father of the Nation but also encouraged unity, peace, and communal harmony among the people of Mumbai.
