Introduction:

On October 15th, 2022, the NSS Unit of Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science in Vashi, Navi Mumbai, organized and celebrated "Vachan Prerana Diwas" with great enthusiasm and participation from the college students. This event aimed to promote the importance of reading and encourage a culture of reading among the students.

Event Highlights:

1. Inauguration: The event commenced at 10:00 AM in the college library with an inaugural speech by the NSS Unit coordinator, Mrs. Jolly Dutta, who emphasized the significance of reading and its role in personal and academic development.

2.. Book Exhibition: A book exhibition was set up in the library, featuring a wide range of books from various genres. This provided students with the opportunity to explore diverse literary works and genres.

3. Interactive Reading Sessions: Several interactive reading sessions were organized, where students read aloud from their favorite books and discussed their thoughts and insights with their peers. This allowed for a stimulating exchange of ideas and recommendations.

6. Bookmarks and Reading Pledges: Custom-designed bookmarks were distributed to all participants as a token of remembrance. Students also took a reading pledge, committing to reading regularly and promoting reading habits among their peers.

Participation:

A total of 50 NSS Volunteers actively participated in the "Vachan Prerana Diwas" celebration. Their enthusiasm and engagement in the various activities were commendable.

Outcome:

The "Vachan Prerana Diwas" celebration at Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science was a resounding success. It not only inspired a love for reading among the students but also fostered a sense of community and sharing. Events like these play a vital role in shaping well-rounded individuals who appreciate the value of knowledge and literature in their lives.

We look forward to organizing more such enriching activities in the future to promote the culture of reading and holistic development among our students.
