- RED Ribbon Club of NMMC Hospital, Vashi

Date: November 11, 2022

Time: 9:30 AM

Participants:

- The rally boasted a strong participation of 450 students, which included enthusiastic NSS volunteers.
- The event was expertly managed by Program Officer Mr. Raju Rathod and Program Officer Mr. Arun Vishwakarma, who ensured its smooth execution.
- Additional support and participation were provided by faculty members, including Assistant Professor G. Subhasini.

Route of the Rally:

1. Starting Point: The rally commenced from the premises of Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science in Vashi, Navi Mumbai.
2. Jama Masjid: The procession then made its way to Jama Masjid, where participants likely had the opportunity to engage with local communities and share the rally's message.
3. Shivaji Chowk: Continuing on its path, the rally proceeded to Shivaji Chowk, a pivotal location where the cause and significance of the event could be highlighted.
4. Jain Mandir: The journey then took the participants to Jain Mandir, potentially engaging with diverse groups of people and raising awareness about youth-related issues.
5. Completion Point: Finally, the rally made its way back to the starting point, Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, marking the successful completion of the event.

Event Purpose:

This rally was organized on Youth Day, recognizing the importance of the youth in shaping the future of society. The collaboration with the RED Ribbon Club of NMMC Hospital indicated a shared commitment to addressing vital issues relevant to both youth and public health. The participation of NSS volunteers and students underscored the collective effort to mobilize the youth and raise awareness about crucial matters that impact our communities.

Outcome:-

The Youth Day rally organized by the Sainath Education Trust and Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, in collaboration with the RED Ribbon Club of NMMC Hospital, was a resounding success. It served as a platform for the youth and volunteers to unite, advocate for social change, and engage with the community. The event demonstrated the commitment of the organizers and
