To,
The Principal,

Subject: Invitation for Biggest Youth fest - ञररररररररर - Navi Mumbai 2017

Respected Sir / Madam,

This gives us an immense pleasure to inform you that Rajiv Gandhi College of Arts, Commerce and Science, Vashi presents 'ञररररररररर - Navi Mumbai 2017' with theme "Way to your dreams" from December 16, 2017 to December 22, 2017. 61 events covering different aspects of learning with prize money worth Rs.2, 50,000. Each participant will be awarded with certificate. Best college trophy will be awarded to the college with maximum participation and maximum flags. We cordially invite you and your students to be a part of this mega event.

This event represents Navi Mumbai as a whole consisting of various collisions which will be held throughout these days, majorly Literary Arts, Fine Arts, Performing Arts and Sports. Celebrity and Professionals from various arenas will be available to interact and share their experiences.

This year we also have taken an initiative of unique entrepreneurship training along with social awareness i.e. 'ञररररररररर ki Canteen'. The money received from this will be donated for Cancer Patients.

We request you to send your students for participation as this would provide them an opportunity and given them a platform to explore their talents. Kindly allow our volunteers to interact with your students.

Looking forward for maximum participation of your college in this Biggest Youth Fest.

Warm Regards,

Principal

Cultural and Educational Extravaganza: A Glimpse of the Prarambh 2k17

Prarambh 2K17 is an intercollegiate socio-cultural fest event held from 16th Dec to 22nd Dec 2017 was a spectacular showcase of talent, creativity and skill. With a wide range of activities that catered to diverse interests and talents, it was a day filled with excitement and camaraderie. From academic quizzes to artistic competitions, sports events to culinary challenges, the event brought together students from different colleges to compete and display their prowess in various fields.

Artistic Expression and Creativity: Rangoli, Nail Art and More

The art enthusiasts among the participants brought forth their skills in activities like Rangoli and Nail Art. Rangoli, a traditional Indian art form involving intricate patterns and vibrant colors, was a visual treat. Prajakta Varhadi from ICL College emerged as the winner, displaying not only creativity but also precision.

In the Nail Art competition, Janhavi Kuldeep from Bunts College showed exceptional dexterity and creativity, transforming nails into miniature masterpieces. Such activities encouraged artistic expression, attention to detail and an appreciation for the visual arts.

Testing Knowledge and Communication: Debate and Quiz Competitions

The Debate competition witnessed a clash of ideas and perspectives, with participants eloquently articulating their views. Priyanka Khushwaha from Pillai College emerged as the winner, demonstrating not only her oratory skills but also her ability to present a compelling argument.

The Bollywood Quiz was a high-energy contest, testing participants' knowledge of the Hindi film industry. Shoaib Shaikh from SIWS College emerged as the champion, displaying an impressive knowledge of Bollywood trivia. Similarly, the Essay Writing competition showcased the participants' ability to express their thoughts and ideas in a coherent and compelling manner. Pranaj Gautam from N. G. Acharya College was recognized as the winner, highlighting the importance of effective written communication.

Celebrating Talent and Entertainment: Dance, Singing and Mimicry

The stage was set for a mesmerizing display of talent with the Solo/Duet Dance and Solo Singing competitions. Aishwarya Gautam from ICL College left the audience enthralled with her graceful dance performance, while Gayatri Supatkar from People's Education Society College showcased her melodious voice, captivating everyone with her singing abilities. These events celebrated the performing arts and the ability to connect with the audience through dance and music.

Mimicry, on the other hand, was a delightful showcase of entertainment. Asmita Gaikwad from Modern College was the standout performer, skillfully impersonating various personalities. This activity celebrated the art of mimicry and humor.

Mind Games and Strategy: Chess and Quizzes

Participants with a strategic mindset found their place in the Chess competition, which requires critical thinking, strategic planning, and the ability to foresee moves. The Chess event brought out the competitive spirit and intellect of the participants.

The Best Out of Waste competition encouraged creativity and environmental consciousness. Participants breathed new life into discarded materials, turning them into useful or decorative items. This activity emphasized resourcefulness and the importance of recycling.

Celebrating Tradition: Dawat-E-Ishq and Diya Decoration

Dawat-E-Ishq, the "Dare to Eat" challenge, pushed participants to step out of their culinary comfort zones. Kartik Giri from Sainath Junior College displayed audacity and relished the challenge. It was a testament to daring spirit and the joy of exploring new horizons.

Diya Decoration celebrated cultural expression. Participants transformed traditional Indian lamps (diyas) into pieces of art, showcasing their artistic skills and an appreciation for cultural traditions.

The Sports Arena: Kabaddi, Races and More

The sporting events were no less thrilling. Kabaddi, a traditional Indian contact sport, was a display of strength, agility, and teamwork. The Kabaddi competition celebrated the rich heritage of the sport.

Sprinters vied for glory in the 100 Meter Race. Rahul Singh from Bunts College and Mansi Savindra Patel from Swami Vivekanand College emerged as champions, showcasing their speed and athletic prowess.

The Standing Jump competition was an exciting test of explosive power, with Shah Nasaruddin from S.K. Rai College leaping to victory. These sporting events promoted physical fitness, sportsmanship, and a sense of competition.

Celebrating Creativity and Skill: Face and Finger Painting, Minute to Win it, Poetry Writing and Pot Decoration

Face and Finger Painting: The Face and Finger Painting competition transformed the participants into human canvases. Mamata Singh from Rajiv Gandhi College emerged as the artist extraordinaire. Her brush strokes and color choices captivated the audience. Face and finger painting, a medium that allows for intricate and detailed expression, showcased Mamata's artistic prowess and her ability to transform a blank canvas into a work of art.

Minute to Win it: Preeti Kamite from ICL College demonstrated not only her quick reflexes but also her determination in the "Minute to Win it" challenge. The competition tested participants' agility and focus as they attempted to complete various tasks in under a minute. Preeti's victory celebrated the spirit of speed and precision.

Poetry Writing: In the Poetry Writing competition, Preety Singh from Bunts College emerged as the wordsmith. Her verses conveyed depth of thought and emotion, highlighting her poetic talents. Poetry, as a form of artistic expression, allows participants to convey complex feelings and ideas through carefully chosen words, and Preety Singh excelled in this.

Pot Decoration: The Pot Decoration competition was a testament to the participants' ability to turn ordinary objects into stunning pieces of art. Preeti Raybeer from Dr. S.V. Samat College transformed a plain pot into a masterpiece. This competition celebrated not only creativity but also the appreciation of traditional art forms. The intricate patterns and designs reflected the rich cultural heritage.

Prarrambh 2k17 was a resounding success, bringing together students from various colleges to showcase their skills and talents. It celebrated the arts, academics, sports and cultural traditions, fostering a sense of camaraderie and achievement. The participants left with a sense of pride in their accomplishments and a stronger bond with their peers. These events exemplified the spirit of education and the joy of celebrating talents and traditions.

These activities highlighted the importance of nurturing and celebrating creativity and skill. They encouraged participants to think outside the box, test their abilities in unique challenges, and appreciate the beauty in everyday objects. The intercollegiate event continues to be a platform for students to showcase their talents, express themselves, and inspire others with their artistry. As the winners bask in their glory, it is evident that such competitions are not just about the victory but about the journey of self-discovery and the celebration of individuality and talent.

DETAIL ACTIVITY REPORT
CULTURAL COMMITTEE

Activity : 50th University Youth Festival 2017-18.

Date & Time : 14th Aug 2017

Venue: S.M. Shetty college, Powai

Platform : Offline

Participants List : - Total attendees: -.20

Details of the activity:-

The 50th Intercollegiate Cultural University Youth Festival, hosted by Mumbai University, was an extraordinary celebration of art, culture, and talent. This grand event, held from 14th Aug 2017 to 18th Aug 2017, brought together students from colleges across the region to participate in a diverse array of creative competitions and performances.

The festival commenced with the Mehendi competition, where students showcased their exceptional skills in creating intricate and beautiful henna designs. The participants' nimble fingers painted stories of tradition and artistry.

The Rangoli competition added a vibrant and colorful dimension to the festival. Students displayed their artistic flair by crafting intricate patterns and designs with colored powders and flower petals, transforming the campus into a canvas of beauty.

The On-the-Spot Painting competition was a testament to the creativity and spontaneity of the young artists. Under the open sky, participants produced stunning artworks that captured the essence of the festival.

The Street Play performances were a highlight of the festival. Student teams creatively tackled pressing social issues and conveyed their messages through powerful and thought-provoking dramatic presentations. These performances engaged the audience, leaving them both entertained and enlightened.

The festival's cultural richness was further elevated by the Indian Folk Dance competition. Students embraced the traditions of various regions, donning colorful attire and showcasing captivating dance forms that celebrated India's cultural diversity.

The 50th Intercollegiate Cultural University Youth Festival left an indelible mark on all those involved. It promoted cultural diversity, unity, and a sense of community among the participating colleges. Mumbai University's 50th Intercollegiate Cultural University Youth Festival was an unqualified success. It celebrated the cultural heritage of India, showcased the immense talents of the youth, and instilled pride in our traditions and creative abilities. This festival will be remembered for years to come as a testament to the creativity, unity, and vibrant culture of Mumbai University and its participating colleges.

Outcomes

- Participants have the opportunity to hone their artistic and creative skills, whether in the fields of music, dance, drama, literature, or fine arts.
- Students from diverse backgrounds can interact, share their cultural heritage, and gain a broader perspective on different traditions and art forms.
- Competing with peers from other colleges can motivate students to strive for excellence and improve their skills.
- Youth festivals celebrate the vibrancy and creativity of young people, providing a platform for them to express themselves and engage in activities that reflect their interests and passions.
- These events contribute to a vibrant campus life by offering memorable and enriching experiences for students.
